

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC POLICY CONCENTRATION

The concentration in International Economic Policy provides students with the content knowledge and analytical and problem-solving skills needed for a successful career in international economics. It offers students an understanding of the theoretical basis and policy relevant knowledge needed to make contributions in the areas of international trade, development, international finance and monetary policy, and capital markets.

Required Courses

Students must select four (4) courses, for a total of 12 points, from the following list:

		Points
EMPA U6017	International Trade and Development	3
EMPA U6018	International Finance # Monetary Policy	3
EMPA U6230	Political Economy Seminar	3
EMPA U6233	International Political Economy	3
EMPA U6600	Economic Setting of Public Policy	3
EMPA U6700	Capital Markets	3
Other	Requires Concentration Director Approval

Degree Audit Report

Matriculated students in this program can view their degree audit report on Stellic.