

GLOBAL POLICY STUDIES CONCENTRATION

The concentration in Global Policy Studies provides students with the interdisciplinary content knowledge and analytical and problem-solving skills needed for a successful career in the international political and social arenas. It offers students an understanding of the policy challenges and opportunities in the areas of international politics and cooperation, the United Nations, development, the environment, and demography and social issues.

Required Courses

Students must select four (4) courses, for a total of 12 points, from the following list:

		Points
EMPA U6017	International Trade and Development	3.00
EMPA U6230	Political Economy Seminar	3.00
EMPA U6233	International Political Economy	3.00
EMPA U6236	International Relations Theory for Global Policy Making	3.00
EMPA U6650	Cities in a Globalizing World	3.00
EMPA U8500	Issues in Contemporary Security Policy	3.00
INAF S6572Q	Comparative Foreign Policy	3.00
INAF S6569Q	The UN and Development	3.00
INAF S6552Q	United Nations & Human Rights	3.00
PUAF U6228	Comparative Social Welfare Policy	3.00
SUMA K4175	Global Environmental Markets	3.00
Other	Requires Concentration Director Approval

Degree Audit Report

Matriculated students in this program can view their degree audit report on Stellic.