MIA & MPA SPECIALIZATION CURRICULA

All two-year MIA and MPA students choose one specialization (similar to a minor) consisting of three courses (9 points) focused on a skill or area of specialized knowledge to complement their policy concentration.

DATA ANALYTICS & QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS

Students learn to understand and apply computational and data analytics, econometrics, and quantitative analysis to policy- and management-related issues. Learn more.

GENDER & PUBLIC POLICY

Gender is the often un-analyzed dimension of all public policies. Learn more about this growing field.

INTERNATIONAL CONFLICT RESOLUTION

The specialization in International Conflict Resolution provides students with an understanding of the root causes of international conflicts and how conflict resolution takes place internationally. Learn more.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION & UNITED NATIONS STUDIES

This specialization intends to provide students with a mental map of the international organizations that shape public policy and determine global action at a level beyond the nation-state. Learn more.

LEADERSHIP, INNOVATION, & DESIGN

Learn more.

REGIONAL & REGIONAL FOREIGN LANGUAGE SPECIALIZATIONS

Focus on Africa, East Asia, East-Central Europe, Europe, Latin America, Middle East, Russia and the Former Soviet States, South Asia, or the United States. Learn more.

TECHNOLOGY, MEDIA, & COMMUNICATIONS

Knowing how to navigate the world of mass communications is essential for government officials, academics, and policy advocates. Understanding how new technologies work and their effect on the media is just as important. Learn more.
